

NWBRA 2024 NFR DRAFT

Rules:

To enter this NFR draft, you need to select a contestant from each event (select only the header in the team roping). Your team's total points are calculated by adding the ranking number that your contestant enters the NFR. For instance, Cole Reiner has a total of 12 in the bareback riding. Your team's total points need to be at least 67. In other words, you can't select all #1 ranked contestants. Once you have selected a total of 7 contestants, total their rankings.

The entry fee for the event is $20. The winning team will be the team that wins the most money at the NFR (this includes all 10 rounds and the average). The payout will depend on the number of teams entered.
